

FULL NAME:

GROUP:

Put the underlined words in the correct column and complete the table: (6 marks)

Would someone please wake me up at 2:30?/ This store across the street.

Pronoun	someone
Determiner	this
Particle	up
Preposition	across
adverb	please
Prepositional phrase	across the street

Complete the following sentences: (6 marks)

A compound-complex sentence contains three or more clauses: two independent and at least one dependent clause.

A major sentence / Independent clause / Simple sentence is also called a regular sentence.

Exclamatory sentences express a strong emotion or are forceful in nature.

Correct the following sentences:(8 marks)

A gerund phrase is a noun phrase that begins with an infinitive verb

An infinitive phrase is a noun phrase that begins with an infinitive verb.

Or

A gerund phrase is a noun phrase that starts with a gerund.

Were drinking tea

We were drinking tea.

I don't like light I don't like dark either

I don't like light, but I don't like dark, either.

Or

I don't like light, and I don't like dark, either.

Or

I don't like light; I don't like dark, either.

Or

I don't like light. I don't like dark, either.

it was sunny I didn't take my glasses although

Although it was sunny, I didn't take my glasses.

or

I didn't take my glasses, although it was sunny.