Correction

Task1. Task 1 is divided into a) and b):

- a) In the USA, the officials who can preside over the Senate sessions are the following:

The Vice President / The President pro tempore / The Chief Justice

- b) Say in what circumstances they can take this position (the presidency over the Senate session).

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate according to section three of the constitution.

The President pro tempore shall be President of the Senate when the Vice President is absent or when he works as acting president (exercises the Office of President of the United States).

The Chief Justice: when the US President is tired in the Senate

Task 2. Describe the process of changing senators in the USA, and say whether these (the senators) can serve, or have already served for terms extending more than two years. Base your answer on the US constitution and the explanation provided in the lecture. (7pts)

- You talk about the division of the first senate members into three classes and how each class can be replaced.
- You say that after the third class serves its six-year term, the subsequent divisions have served only for two years terms.
- You say that only the divisions of the first Senate have served for terms extending more than two years.

Task 3. Using your own words, provide a brief summary of the power and the selection (appointment) process of any executive council in the Articles of the Confederations. (7pts))

You use your own words to talk about the executive according to Article IX in the Articles of the Confederation and not the Constitution.
